New traders We look forward to seeing two new young entrepreneurs trading on Portobello Market after they were named winners of the Royal Borough's Market Enterprise Launch Pad 2011. Jo Hawtree, who is starting a men's fashion label called 'Gunsmoke & Lavender', and Emily Ellen Dell, who sells bespoke art on canvas under the name 'Girl on a Swing', have each won £1,000 in start-up funds, six months rent-free market stall space, a support package from The Prince's Trust and free business insurance. Congratulations!
